Heritage is Honoured on a Special Day

Heritage Winnipeg celebrated our 27th Annual Preservation Awards with the heritage community on National Heritage Day and Louis Riel Day at the historic Barber House. A special thank you to all the awards winners, nominees, and all other participants! All the nominees and awards winners of this year are as follows:

Commercial Conservation Award NOMINEES:

Ryan/King Building - 104 King Street - this office/warehouse was originally built in 1895 for Thomas Ryan. Behind the original facade is now a parkade.

Scott Block - 272 Main Street - constructed in 1904 as commercial/retail space. It is currently being completely renovated on the interior and restoration to the exterior.

Former Carnegie Library (Winnipeg Archives Building) - 380 William Avenue - constructed in 1903-05, this was the first public library constructed for this purpose in Winnipeg, with the assistance from Philanthropist Andrew Carnegie.

Commercial Conservation Awards WINNERS:

Barber House - 99 Euclid Avenue - built in approximately 1865 with Red River construction made up of squared oak logs. The original modest home of pioneer journalist and businessman E.L. Barber.

Residential Conservation Awards WINNER:
Kantor/Moss House - 218 Rosyln Road - the original house was designed by architect James H. Cadham as a Georgian Revival mansion.

Congratulations to all the nominees and winners!

Doors Open Winnipeg -- Call for Volunteers

Heritage Winnipeg is looking for volunteer ambassadors and tour guides to represent buildings for our 9th annual Doors Open Winnipeg Event in roles ranging from welcoming visitors, to providing building tours. The event, which features historically, culturally, and architecturally significant buildings, takes place during the weekend of May 26 & 27, between the hours of 11am to 5 pm. Shifts are 3 hours long, and buildings will be assigned. Volunteers are asked to attend one of the Volunteer Orientation sessions being held at the Millennium Library in May, date to be announced. To register please contact our office at info@heritagewinnipeg.com.
