

Winnipeg Airport Terminal 1964 - ?????

One of the finest examples of Mid-Century
Modernist Architecture in Canada
threatened with demolition!

*Photo from the Winnipeg Buildings Index,
University of Manitoba Architecture/Fine Arts Library*

*Photo donated by photographer Bryan Scott
<http://www.winnipeglovehate.com/>*

*Photo donated from the Henry Kalen fonds,
University of Manitoba Archives & Special Collections*

*Photo from the Winnipeg Buildings Index,
University of Manitoba Architecture/Fine Arts Library*

With vision:

Adaptive
Re-use

Silent Wings Museum at Lubbock International Airport, Texas. It is an adaptive re-use of a 1950s airport terminal. The museum documents the history of gliders in warfare.

Without vision:

Demolition

Demolition of Toronto Pearson airport's historic modernist terminal, Aeroquay One, originally completed in 1964. It was demolished in 2004.

Contact your MP now to express your position before it is too late!